PREFACE.

T THILE we fing the Praises of our God in his Church, we are employ'd in that part of Worship which of all others is the nearest a-kin to Heaven; and 'tis pity that this of all others should be perform'd the worst upon Earth. The Gospel brings us nearer to the heavenly State than all the former Difpensations of God amongst Men: And in these last Days of the Gospel we are brought almost within fight of the Kingdom of our Lord; yet we are very much unacquainted with the Songs of the New Ferusalem, and unpractis'd in the Work of Praise. To see the dull Indifference, the negligent and the thoughtless Air that sits upon the Faces of a whole Assembly, while the Psalm is on their Lips, might tempt even a charitable Obsergion; and 'tis much to be fear'd that the Minds of most of the Worshippers are absent or unconcern'd. Perhaps the Modes of Preaching in the best Churches still want some Degrees of Resormation, nor are the Methods of Prayer so perfect as to stand in need of no Correction or Improvement: But of all our Religious Solemnities Psalmodie is the most unhappily managed. That very Action which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine Sensations, doth not only flat our Devotion, but too often awakens our Regret, and touches all the Springs of Uneasiness within us.

I have been long convinc'd, that one great Occasion of this Evil arises from the Matter and Words to which we confine all our Songs. Some of 'em are almost opposite to the Spirit of the Gospel: Many of them foreign to the State of the New-Testament, and widely different from the present Circumstances of Christians. Hence it comes to pass, that when spiritual Affections are excited within us, and our Souls are raised a little above this Earth in the beginning of a Psalm, we are check'd on a sudden in our Ascent toward Heaven, by some Expressions that are more suited to the Days of Carnal Ordinances, and fit only to be fung in the Worldly Sanctuary. When we are just entring into an Evangelic Frame by some of the Glories of the Gospel presented in the brightest Figures of Judaism, yet the very next Line perhaps which the Clerk parcels out unto us, hath fomething in it fo extreamly Fenish and cloudy, that darkens our Sight of God the Saviour: Thus by keepng too close to David in the House of God, the Vail of Muses is thrown over our Hearts. gainst Men is propos'd to our Lips; That God would add Iniquity unto their Iniquity, not let'em come into bis Righteousness, but blot em out of the Book of the Living, Plal. 69. 16, 27, 28. which is fo contrary to the New Commandment, of loving our Enemies; and even under the Old Testament is best accounted for, by referring it to the Spirit of Prophetic Vengcance. Some Sentences of the Psalmist that are expressive of the Temper of our own Hearts, and the Circumstances of our Lives, may compose our Spirits to Seriousness, and allure us to a sweet Retirement within our selves; but we meet with a following Line which so peculiarly belongs but to one Action or Hour of the Life of David or of Asaph, that breaks off our Song in the midst; our Consciences are atfrighted lest we should speak a Falshood unto God: Thus the Powers of our Souls are shock'd on a sudden, and our Spirits ruffled before we have time to reflect that this may be fung only as a History of antient Saints: And perhaps in some Instances that Salvo is hardly sufficient neither. Besides, it almost always spoils the Devotion by breaking the Uniform Thread of it. For while our Lips and our Hearts run on sweetly together, applying the Words to our own Cafe, there is something of Divine Delight in it: But at once we are forced to turn off the Application abruptly, and our Lips fpeak nothing but the Heart of David: Thus our own Hearts are as it were forbid the Pursuit of the Song, and then the Harmony and the Worship grow dull of meer mecessity.

. Many Ministers and many private Christians have long groan'd under this Inconvenience, and have wish'd rather than attempted a Reformation: At their importunate and repeated Requests I have for some Years past devoted many Hours of leisure to this Service. Far be it from my Thoughts to lay aside the Book of Psalms in publick Worship; sew can pretend so great a Value for 'em as my felf: It is the most artful, most Devotional and Divine Collection of Poefy; and nothing can be suppos'd more proper to raise a pious Soul to Heaven than some parts of that Book; never was a piece of Experimental Divinity fo nobly written, and so justly reverenced and admired : But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand Lines in it which were not made for a Church in our Days, to affume as its own: There are also many Deficiencies of Light and Glory, which our Lord Fesus and his Apostles have supply'd in the Writings of the New Testament; and with this Advantage I have compos'd these spiritual Songs which are now presented to the World. Nor is the Attempt vain-glorious or prefuming; for in respect of clear Evangelick Knowledge, The least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than all the Jewish Prophets, Lips Mat. II. II. avid: Now let me give a short Account of the forbid e Har-following Composures.

The greatest Part of 'em are fuited to the general State of the Gospel, and the most common Affairs of Christians: I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious Assembly, and not one of 'em but may well be adapted to some Seasons, either of private-or of publick Worship. The most frequent Tempers and Changes of our Spirit, and Conditions of our Life are here copied, and the Breathings of our Piety exprest according to the variety of our Paffions, our Love, our Fear, our Hope, our Desire, our Sorrow, our Wonder and our Joy, as they are refin'd into Devotion, and act under the Influence and Conduct of the Bleffed Spirit; all converfing with God the Father by the new and living. Way of Access to the Throne, even the Perfon and the Mediation of our Lord Jelus Christ. To him also, even to the Lamb that was flain and now lives, I have address'd many a Song; for thus doth the holy Scripture instruct and teach us to Worship, in the various short Patterns of Christian Psalmodie described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted Points of Christianity, that we might all obey the Direction of the Word of God, and sing his Praises with Understanding, Psal. 47.7. Sects and Parties are secluded, that whole Assemblies might assist at the Harmony, and different Churches join in the same Worship without Offence.

If any Expressions occur to the Reader that favour of an Opinion different from his own, yet the may observe these are generally such as are capable of an extensive Sense, and may be used with a charitable Latitude. Tho' I don't pretend this is the properest Method to write Treatifes of Divinity which are to be read in private; yet I think 'tis most agreeable, that what is provided for publick Worship shou'd give to sincere Consciences as little Vexation and Disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing Word is found, he that leads the Worship may substitute a better; for (Bleffed be God) we are not confin'd to the Words of any Man in our public Solemnities.

The whole Book is written in four forts of Metre, and fitted to the most common Tunes. I have seldom permitted a Stop in the middle of a Line, and seldom left the end of a Line without one, to comport a little with the unbappy Mixture of Reading and Singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The Metaphors are generally sunk to the Level of vulgar Capacities. I have aimed at ease of Numbers and smoothness of Sound, and endeavour'd to make the Sense plain and obvious. If the Verse appears so gentle and slowing as to incur the Censure of Feebleness, I may honestly affirm, that foine-formetimes it cost me Labour to make it so: Some of the Beauties of Poesy are neglected, and some wilfully defac'd: I have thrown out the Lines that were too sonorous, and have given an Allay to the Verse, lest a more exalted Turn of Thought or Language should darken or disturb the Devotion of the weakest Souls. But hence it comes to pais that I have been forc'd to lay aside many Hymns after they were finish'd, and utterly exclude 'em from this Volume, because of the bolder Figures of Speech that crouded themselves into the Verse, and a more unconfin'd Variety of Number which I could not easily restrain.

These, with many other Divine and Moral Composures, are now printed in a second Edition of the Poems entitled Hora Lyrica: for as in that Book I have endeavour'd to please and profit the politer part of Mankind without offending the plainer fort of Christians, to in this it has been my Labour to promote the pious Entertainment of Souls. truly serious, even of the meanest Capacity, and at the same time (if possible) not to give Disgust to Persons of richer Sense and nicer Education; and I hope in the present Volume this End will appear to be purfu'd with much greater Happiness than in the former Impression of it, tho' the World affures me the former has not much Reason to complain.

The whole is divided into Three Books. In the first I have borrow'd the Senfer.

A 5 and i

and much of the Form of the Song from fome particular Portions of Scripture, and have paraphras'd most of the Doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any thing in 'em peculiarly Evangelical, and many parts of the Old Testament also, that have a reference to the Times of the Mefliah. In these I expect to be often censur'd for a too religious Observance of the Words of Scripture, whereby the Verse is weaken'd and debas'd according to the Judgment of the Criticks: But as my whole Defign was to aid the Devotion of Christians, so more especially in this Part: and I am satisfy'd I shall hereby attain Two Ends, (viz.) assist the Worship of all serious Minds, to whom the Expressions of Scripture are ever dear and delightful, and gratify the Taste and Inclination of those who think nothing must be fung unto God but the Translations of his own Word. Yet you will always find in this Paraphrase dark Expressions enlighten'd, and the Levitical Ceremonies and Hebrew Forms of Speech chang'd into the Worship of the Gospel, and explain'd in the Language of our Time and Nation; and what would not bear fuch an Alteration is omitted and laid afide. After this manner should I rejoyce to see a good part of the Book of Psalms fitted for the Use of our Churches, and David converted into a Christian: But because I cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious Work, I have suffered my self to be perfuaded to begin it, and have, thro Di

The Second Part confilts of Hymns, whose Form is of meer Human Composure, but I hope the Sense and Materials will always appear Divine. I might have brought some Text or other, and apply'd it to the Margin of every Verfe, if this Method had been as ufeful as it was eafy. If there be any Poems in the Book that are capable of giving Delight to Persons of a more refin'd Taste and polite Education, perhaps they may be found in this Part; but except they lay aside the Humour of Criticism, and enter into a devout Frame, every Ode here already despairs of pleasing. I confess my self to have been too often tempted away from the more Spiritual Deligns I propos'd, by some gay and flowry Expressions that gratify'd the Fancy; the bright Images too often prevail'd above the Fire of Divine Affection; and the Light exceeded the Heat: Yet I hope, in many of them the Reader will find that Devotion dictated the Song, and the Head and Hand were nothing but Interpreters and Secretaries to the Heart: Nor is the Magnificence or Boldness of the Figures comparable to that Divine License which is found in the Eighteenth and Sixty Eighth Psalms, several Chapters of Job, and other Poetical Parts of Scripture: and in this Respect I may hope to escape the Reproof of thole who pay a facred Reverence to the Holy Bible.

I have prepar'd the Third Part only for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, that, in Imitation of our bleffed Saviour, we might fing an Hymn after we have partaken of the Bread and Wine. Here you will find fome Paraphrases of Scripture, and some other Compositions. There are above an Hundred Hymns in the Two sormer Parts that may very properly be used in this Ordinance, and sometimes perhaps appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are Expressions generally us'd in these which confine 'em only to the Table of the Lord, and therefore I have distinguish'd and set 'em by themselves.

If the Lord who inhabits the Praises of Ifrael shall refuse to smile upon this Attempt for the Reformation of Pfalmody amongst the Churches, yet I humbly hope that his bleffed Spirit will make these Composures ufeful to private Christians; and if they may but attain the Honour of being efteem'd pious Meditations, to affift the devout and the retir'd Soul in the Exercises of Love, Faith and Joy, 'twill be a valuable Compen-fation of my Labours; my Heart shall rejoice at the Notice of it, and my God shall receive the Glory. This was my Hope and Vow in the first Publication, and 'tis now my Duty to acknowledge to him with Thankfulness how useful he has made these Compositions already, to the Comfort and Edification of Societies and of private Perions; and upon the fame Grounds I have a better better Prospect and a bigger Hope of much more Service to the Church by the large Improvements of this Edition, if the Lord who dwells in Zion, shall favour it with his continu'd Blessing.

Advertisements concerning the second Edition.

1. There are almost 150 new Hymns added, and one or more fuited to every Theme and Subject in Divinity. Having found by Converse with Christians, what Words or Lines in the former made them less useful, I have not only made various Corrections in them, but have endeavour'd to avoid the same Mistakes in all the new Composures. And whereas many of the former were too particularly adapted to special Frames and Scalons of the Christian Life, almost all that are added have a more general and extensive Sense, and may be assum'd and fung by most Persons in a worshipping Congregation.

2. About 14 or 15 Psalms that were translated in the first Edition are lest out in this, because I intend (if God afford Life and Assistance) to convert the biggest Part of the Book of Psalms into Spiritual Songs for the Use of Christians; yet the same Numbers are still apply'd to the Hymns, that there

AND

Spiritual Songs.

BOOK I.

Collected from the Holy Scriptures.

slain, Rev. 5.6, 8, 9, 10, 12.

Ehold the Glories of the Lamb Amidst his Father's Throne: Prepare new Honours for his (Name, And Songs before unknown.

Let Elders worship at his Feet,
The Church adore around,
With Vials full of Odours sweet,
And Harps of sweeter Sound.

ANS

And these the Hymns they raise:

Fesus

Fesus is kind to our Complaints, He loves to hear our Praise.

- [4 Eternal Father, who shall look Into thy Secret Will?
 Who but the Son should take that Book
 And open ev'ry Seal?
- 5 He shall sulfil thy great Decrees,
 The Son deserves it well;
 Lo, in his Hand the Sov'reign Keys
 Of Heav'n, and Death, and Hell.]
- 6 Now to the Lamb that once was slain, Be endless Blessings paid; Salvation, Glory, Joy remain For ever on thy Head.
- 7 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls with Blood, Hast set the Pris'ners free, Hast made us Kings and Priests to God, And we shall reign with thee.
- 8 The Worlds of Nature and of Grace Are put beneath thy Pow'r; Then shorten these delaying Days, And bring the promis'd Hour.
- II. The Deity and Humanity of Christ, John 1. 1, 3, 14. & Col. 1. 16. & Eph. 3. 9, 10.
- E'ER the blue Heav'ns were stretch'd afford, From Everlasting was the Word;

With

I

With God he was; the Word was God, And must Divinely be ador'd.

- By his own Pow'r were all things made;
 By him supported all things stand;
 He is the whole Creation's Head,
 And Angels fly at his Command.
- B'er Sin was born, or Satan fell, He led the Host of Morning-Stars; (Thy Generation who can tell, Or count the Numbers of thy Years?)
- 4 But lo, he leaves those Heavenly Forms, The Word descends and dwells in Clay, That he may hold Converse with Worms, Drest in such feeble Flesh as they.
- Mortals with Joy beheld his Face, Th' Eternal Father's only Son; How full of Truth! how full of Grace, When thro' his Eyes the Godhead shone!
- 6 Arch-Angels leave their high Abode, To learn new Mysteries here, and tell The Loves of our descending God, The Glories of Emanuel.

III. The Nativity of Christ, Luke 1. 30, &c. Luke 2. 10, &c.

Behold, the Grace appears, The Promise is sulfill'd; Mary the wondrous Virgin bears, And Jesus is the Child.

[2 The Lord, the Highelt God Calls him his only Son; He bids him rule the Lands abroad, And gives him David's Throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign With a peculiar Sway; The Nations shall his Grace obtain, His Kingdom ne'er decay.]

4 To bring the glorious News A heav'nly Form appears; He tells the Shepherds of their Joys, And banishes their Fears.

5 Go, humble Swains, said he, To David's City fly; The promis'd Infant born to Day Doth in a Manger lye.

6 With Looks and Hearts serence Go visit Christ your King; And strait a flaming Troop was seen; The Shepherds heard them sing.

7 Glory to God on High, And heavenly Peace on Earth, Good-Will to Men, To Angels Joy, At the Redeemer's Birth.

[8 In Worship so Divine Let Saints imploy their Tongues; With the Celestial Host we join, And loud repeat their Songs.

And Heavenly Peace on Earth;

Good-Will to Men, to Angels Joy.

At our Redeemer's Birth.]

IV. Referr'd to the 2d Psalm.

BT.

1-

- V. Submission to Afflictive Providences, Job 1.21.
- And crept to Life at first,
 We to the Earth return again,
 And mingle with our Dust.
- 2 The dear Delights we here enjoy, And fondly call our own, Are but short Favours borrow'd Now, To be repay'd Anon.
- 'Tis God that lifts our Comforts high, Or finks 'em in the Grave. He gives, and (bleffed be his Name) He takes but what he gave.
- Peace, all our angry Passions then, Let each rebellious Sigh Be silent at his Sovereign Will, And every Murmur die.
- If smiling Mercy crown our Lives
 Its Praises shall be spread,
 And we'll adore the Justice too
 That strikes our Comforts dead.

- GReat God, I own thy Sentence just,
 And Nature must decay,
 I yield my Body to the Dust,
 To dwell with Fellow-clay.
- 2 Yet Faith may triumph o'er the Grave, And trample on the Tombs: My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes:
- 3 The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear High on a Royal Seat, And Death the last of all his Foes Lie vanquish'd at his Feet.
- 4 Tho' greedy Worms devour my Skin,
 And gnaw my wasting Flesh,
 When God shall build my Bones again,
 He clothes'em all afresh.
- Then shall I see thy lovely Face
 With strong immortal Eyes,
 And feast upon thy unknown Grace
 With Pleasure and Surprize.
- VII. The Invitation of the Gospel, or spiritual Food and Clothing; Isa. 55. 1, 2, &c.
- LET ev'ry mortal Ear attend, And ev'ry Heart rejoice,

The

Spiritual Songs. B. I. The Trumpet of the Gospel sounds With an inviting Voice. Ho, all ye hungry flarving Souls, That feed upon the Wind, And vainly strive with Earthly Toys To fill an empty Mind. Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd A Soul-reviving Feaft, And bids your longing Appetites The Rich Provision talte. Ho, ye that pant for living Streams, And pine away and die, Here you may quench your raging Thirst With Springs that never dry. Rivers of Love and Mercy here In a rich Ocean joyn; Salvation in abundance flows Like Floods of Milk and Wine. [6 Ye perishing and naked Poor, Who work with mighty Pain, To weave a Garment of your own That will not hide your Sin. 7 Come naked, and adorn your Souls In Robes prepar'd by God, Wrought by the Labours of his Son pel, And dy'd in his own Blood.] ng; 8 Dear God, the Treasures of thy Love Are everlasting Mines, Deep as our helpless Miseries are, And boundless as our Sins. The B 4. 9 The 9 The happy Gates of Gospel-Grace Stand open Night and Day, Lord, we are come to seek Supplies, And drive our Wants away.

VIII. The Safety and Protection of the Church, Isa. 26. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Where we adoring stand, Zion the Glory of the Earth, And Beauty of the Land.

2 Bulwarks of mighty Grace defend The City where we dwell, The Walls of strong Salvation made, Defie th' Assaults of Hell.

The Doors wide open fling, Enter the Nations that obey The Statutes of our King.

4 Here shall you taste unmingled Joys,
And live in persect Peace,
You that have known Jehovah's Name,
And ventur'd on his Grace.

5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust, And banish all your Fears; Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells, Eternal as his Years.

6 What the' the Rebels dwell on high,
His Arm shall bring them low,
Low as the Caverns of the Grave
Their lofty Heads shall bow. 7 On

7 On Babylon our Feet shall tread In that rejoycing Hour, The Ruins of her Walls shall spread A Pavement for the Poor.

IX. The Promises of the Covenant of Grace, Isa. 55. 1, 2. Zech. 13. 1. Mica. 7. 19. Ezek. 36. 25, &c.

I N vain we lavish out our Lives
To gather empty Wind,
The choicest Blessings Earth can yield
Will starve a hungry Mind.

With more substantial Meat,
With such as Saints in Glory love,
With such as Angels eat.

And fill our Hearts with Peace, He gives by Cov'nant and by Oath The Riches of his Grace.

And wash away our Stains
In the dear Fountain that his Son
Pour'd from his dying Veins.

Tho' black as Hell before,
Our Sins shall fink beneath the Sea
And shall be found no more.

6 And lest Pollution shou'd o'er-spread Our inward Pow'rs again, B 5

His

His Spirit shall bedew our Souls Like purifying Rain.]

- 7 Our Heart, that flinty stubborn thing, That Terrors cannot move, That fears no Threatnings of his Wrath Shall be dissolv'd by Love.
- 8 Or he can take the Flint away
 That wou'd not be refin'd,
 And from the Treasures of his Grace
 Bestow a softer Mind.
- And deep engrave his Law, And every Motion of our Souls To swift Obedience draw.
- And we shall render Praise,

 We the dear People of his Love,

 And he our God of Grace.
- X. The Blessedness of Gospel-Times: Or, The Revelation of Christ to Jews and Gentiles, Isa. 5. 2, 7, 8, 9, 10. Mat. 13. 16, 17.
- HOW beauteous are their Feet Who stand on Zion's Hill, Who bring Salvation on their Tongues, And Words of Peace reveal!
 - 2 How charming is their Voice! How sweet the Tidings are!

cc Zion,

I

- "Zion, behold thy Saviour-King,
 "He Reigns and Triumphs here.
- 3 How happy are our Ears
 That hear this joyful Sound,
 Which Kings and Prophets waited for,
 And fought, but never found!
- 4 How bleffed are our Eyes
 That see this Heav'nly Light;
 Prophets and Kings desir'd it long
 But dy'd without the Sight!
- 5 The Watchmen join their Voice, And tuneful Notes imploy; Jerusalem breaks forth in Songs, And Desarts learn the Joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his Arm Thro' all the Earth abroad, Let ev'ry Nation now behold Their Saviour and their God.
- XI. The Humble enlightened, and Carnal Reason humbled: Or, The Sovereignty of Grace, Luke 10. 21, 22.
- There was an Hour when Christ rejoyc'd, And spoke his Joy in Words of Praise;

"Father, I thank thee, mighty God,
"Lord of the Earth and Heavens and Seas.

2 "I thank thy Sov'reign Pow'r and Love,
That crowns my Doctrine with Success;
And

Pains of the Flesh are wont t'abuse Our Minds with flavish Fears;

Onr

Our Days are past, and we shall lose The remnant of our Years.

- 4 We chatter with a Swallow's Voice, Or like a Dove we mourn, With Bitterness instead of Joys, Afflicted and forlorn.
- 5 Jehovah speaks the healing Word, And no Disease withstands: Fevers and Plagues obey the Lord, And fly at his Commands.
- 6 If half the Strings of Life should break, He can our Frame restore: He casts our Sins behind his Back, And they are found no more.

- I NOt different Food or different Dress Compose the Kingdom of our Lord, But Peace and Joy and Righteousness, Faith and Obedience to his Word.
- When weaker Christians we despise We do the Gospel mighty wrong; For God the Gracious and the Wise Receives the Feeble with the Strong.
- Meekness and Love our Souls pursue:
 Nor shall our Practice give Offence

CXXVII. Christ's Invitation to Sinners; or, Humility and Pride; Mat. 11. 28—30.

"Come hither all ye weary Soule,
"Ye heavy laden Sinners come,

" I'll give you Rest from all your Toils," And raise you to my heavenly Home.

" They shall find Rest that learn of me;

" I'm of a meek and lowly Mind;
" But Passion rages like the Sea,

"And Pride is restless as the Wind.

" Bleft is the Man whose Shoulders take

" My Yoke, and bear it with Delight;

" My Yoke is eafy to his Neck,

" My Grace shall make the Burden light.

Jesus, we come at thy Command, With Faith and Hope and humble Zeal Resign our Spirits to thy Hand, To mould and guide us at thy Will.

XXVIII. The Apostles Commission; or, the Gospel attested by Miracles; Mark 16. 15, &c. Mat. 28. 18, &c.

CXXX. Love and Hatred; Phil. 2. 2. Ephes. 4. 30, &c.

NOW by the Bowels of my God, His sharp Distress, his fore Complaints, By his last Groans, his dying Blood, I charge my Soul to love the Saints.

Clamour and Wrath and War be gone, Envy and Spite for ever cease, Let bitter Words no more be known Amongst the Saints, the Sons of Peace.

The Spirit like a peaceful Dove
Flies from the Realms of Noise and Strife;
Why should we vex and grieve his Love,
Who seals our Souls to heav'nly Life?

Tender and kind be all our Thoughts, Thro' all our Lives let Mercy run: So God forgives our num'rous Fau'ts For the dear Sake of Christ his Son.

CXXXI. The Pharisee and Publican; Luke 18. 10, &c.

- BEhold how Sinners disagree,
 The Publican and Pharisee!
 One doth his Righteousness proclaim,
 The other owns his Guilt and Shame.
- 2 This Man at humble distance stands, And cries for Grace with listed Hands; That boldly rises near the Throne, And talks of Duties he has done.
- 3 The Lord their different Language knows, And different Answers He bestows; The humble Soul with Grace he crowns, Whilst on the Proud his Anger frowns.
- Joyn'd with the boasting Pharises;
 I have no Merits of my own,
 But plead the Sufferings of thy Son.

CXXXII. Holiness and Grace; Tit. 2. 10—13.

HOsanna, with a chearful Sound, To God's upholding Hand, Ten thousand Snares attend us round, And yet secure we stand.

That was a most amazing Power That rais'd us with a Word, And every Day and every Hour We lean upon the Lord.

We wake and we admire the Bed
That was not made our Tomb.

That we shall end the Day,
For Death stands ready at the Door
To seize our Lives away:

MY Soul forfakes her vain Delight, And bids the World farewel, Base as the Dirt beneath my Feet, And mischievous as Hell.

No longer will I ask your Love, Nor feek your Friendship more; The Happiness that I approve Lies not within your Power.

XVII. God's Eternity.

R Ise, rise my Soul, and leave the Ground,
Stretch all my Thoughts abroad,
And rouze up every tuneful Sound
To praise th' Eternal God.

Long e'er the lofty Skies were spread Jehovah fill'd his Throne; Or Adam form'd, or Angels made, The Maker liv'd alone.

But still maintain their Prime;
Eurnity's his Dwelling-place,
And Ever is his Time.

While like a Tide our Minutes flow, The present and the past, He fills his own Immortal NOW, And sees our Ages waste.

The Sea and Sky must perish too,
And vast Destruction come;
The Creatures, look, how old they grow,
And wait their fiery Doom!

Well, let the Sea shrink all away, And Flame melt down the Skies, My God shall live an endless Day When th'old Creation dies.

LI. A fight of God mortifies us to the World.

IJP to the Fields where Angels lye, And living Waters gently roll, Fain would my Thoughts leap out and fly, But Sin hangs heavy on my Soul.

Thy wondrous Blood, dear dying Christ. Can make this load of Guilt remove; And thou canst bear me where thou fly'ft, On thy kind Wings, Celestial Dove.

0 might I once mount up and fee The Glories of th' Eternal Skies, What little things these Worlds would be. How despicable to my Eyes!

Had I a Glance of thee, my God, Kingdoms and Men would vanish soon, Vanish as the' I saw 'em not. As a dim Candle dies at Noon.

pla Then they might fight, and rage, and rave, should perceive the Noise no more Than we can hear a shaking Leaf While rattling Thunders round us roar.

Great All in All, Eternal King, let me but view thy lovely Face, and all my Pow'rs shall bow and sing, Thine endless Grandeur, and thy Grace.

Spiritual Songs. B. II. 201 6 There shall I wear a starry Crown, And triumph in Almighty Grace, While all the Armies of the Skies Joyn in my glorious Leader's Praise. LXXVIII. Redemption by Christ. 117 Hen the first Parents of our Race Rebell'd and lost their God, And the Infection of their Sin Had tainted all our Blood; Infinite Pity touch't the Heart Of the Eternal Son, Descending from the heavenly Court He left his Father's Throne. Aside the Prince of Glory threw His most divine Aray, And wrap'd his Godhead in a Veil Of our inferiour Clay. We thro' the Cloud believe thy Grace, Secure of thy Compassions still.

Thro' Seas and Storms of deep Distress We sail by Faith and not by Sight; Faith guides us in the Wilderness, Through all the Briars and the Night.

A Dear Father, if thy lifted Rod Resolve to scourge us here below; Still we must lean upon our God, Thine Arm shall bear us safely through.

CX. Triumph over Death in hope of the Resurrection.

AND must this Body die?
This mortal Frame decay?

And must these active Limbs of mine
Lie mould'ring in the Clay?

2 Corruption, Earth and Worms, Shall but refine this Flesh, Till my triumphant Spirit comes, To put it on afresh.

3 God my Redeemer lives, And often from the Skies Looksdown and watches all my Dult, Till he shall bid it rife.

Array'd in glorious Grace
Shall these vile Bodies shine,
And every Shape, and every Face
Look heavenly and divine.

5 Thes

These lively Hopes we owe To Jesus dying Love; would adore his Grace below,

And fing his Pow'r above.

Of these our humble Songs,

Tunes of nobler Sound we raise

With our Immortal Tongues.

II. Thanksgiving for Victory; or, od's Dominion and our Deliverance.

ZION rejoyce, and Judah fing; The Lord assumes his Throne; let Britain own the heavenly King, And make his Glories known.

The Great, the Wicked, and the Proud From their high Seats are hurl'd; thowah rides upon a Cloud, And thunders thro' the World.

CXII. Angels ministring to Christ and Saints.

GReat God, to what a glorious Height Hast thou advanc'd the Lord thy Son? Angels in all their Robes of Light Are made the Servants of his Throne.

2 Before his Feet their Armies wait, And swift as Flames of Fire they move To manage his Affairs of State In Works of Vengeance or of Love.

3 His Orders run thro' all their Hosts. Legions descend at his Command To shield and guard the British Coasts When Foreign Rage invades our Land;

4 Now they are sent to guide our Feet Up to the Gates of thine Abode, Thro' all the Dangers that we meet In travelling the heav'nly Road.

5 Lord, when I leave this mortal Ground, And thou shalt bid me rife and come, Send a beloved Angel down Safe to conduct my Spirit Home.

THE Majesty of Solomon!
How glorious to behold
The Servants waiting round his Throne,
The Ivory and the Gold!

But, mighty God, thy Palace shines
With far superiour Beams:
Thine Angel-Guards are swift as Winds,
Thy Ministers are Flames.

3 Soon as thine only Son had made His Entrance on this Earth, A shining Army downward sled To celebrate his Birth.

And when opprest with Pains and Fears
On the cold Ground he lies,
Behold a heav'nly Form appears
T'allay his Agonies.]

Now to the Hands of Christ our King Are all their Legions giv'n; They wait upon his Saints, and bring His chosen Heirs to Heaven.

Pleasure and Praise run thro' their Host To see a Sinner turn; Then Satan has a Captive lost, And Christ a Subject born.

But there's an Hour of brighter Joy When he his Angels fends Obstinate Rebels to destroy, And gather in his Friends.

I Sing my Saviour's wond'rous Death; He conquer'd when he fell:

'Tis finish'd, said his dying Breath,
And shook the Gates of Hell.

2 'Tis finish'd, our Immanuel cries,
The dreadful Work is done;
Hence shall his Sovereign Throne arise,
His Kingdom is begun.

For Glory and Renown,
When thro' the Regions of the dead?
He pass'd to reach the Crown.

4 Exalted at his Father's Side
Sits our Victorious Lord;
To Heaven and Hell his Hands divide
The Vengeance or Reward.

Await their feveral Crowns, And all the Sons of Darkness fly The Terror of his Frowns.

CXV. God the Avenger of his Saints; or, his Kingdom Supreme.

HIgh as the Heavens above the Ground Reigns the Creator God, Wide as the whole Creation's Bound Extends his awful Rod.

Let Princes of exalted State
To him ascribe their Crown,
Render their Homage at his Feet,
And cast their Glories down.

Know that his Kingdom is Supreme, Your lofty Thoughts are vain; He calls you Gods, that awful Name, But ye must die like Men.

Then let the Sovereigns of the Globe Not dare to vex the Just; He puts on Vengeance like a Robe, And treads the Worms to Dust.

CXVIII. The Priesthood of Christ.

BLood has a Voice to pierce the Skies, Revenge, the Blood of Abel cries; But the dear Stream when Christ was slain Speaks Peace as loud from every Vein.

Pardon and Peace from God on high, Behold he lays his Vengeance by, And Rebels that deferv'd his Sword Become the Favorites of the Lord.

To Jesus let our Praises rise Who gave his Life a Sacrifice; Now he appears before his God, And for our Pardon pleads his Blood.

CXIX. The Holy Scriptures.

L Aden with Guilt, and full of Fears
I fly to thee my Lord,
And not a glimpse of Hope appears
But in thy written Word.

The Volume of my Father's Grace
Does all my Griefs asswage;
Here I behold my Saviour's Face
Almost in every Page.

This is the Field where hidden lies
The Pearl of Price unknown,
That Merchant is divinely wife
Who makes the Pearl his own.

This is the Judge that ends the Strife
Where Wit and Reason sail:

CXX. The Law and Gospel joyned in Scripture.

THE Lord declares his Will,
And keeps the World in awe;
Amidst the Smoke on Sinai's Hill
Breaks out his fiery Law.

THE Law commands, and makes us (know

What Duties to our God we owe;

Where lies out Strength to do his Will:

The Law discovers Guilt and Sin,
And shows how vile our Hearts have been:
Only the Gospel can express
Forgiving Love and cleansing Grace.

Against the Man that fails but once?
But in the Gospel Christ appears
Pard'ning the Guilt of num'rous Years.

6 Dear Saviour, change our Faith to Sight,
Let Sin for ever die;
Then shall our Souls be all Delight,
And every Tear be dry,

Cannot perswade my Self to put a full Perio to these Divine Hymus, till I havel address a Special Song of Glory to God the Father the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Tho' the Lati Name of it, Gloria Patri, be retain'd in ou Nation from the Roman Church; and th there may be some Excesses of Superstitious Hi nour paid to the Words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy Prejulices in Weaks Christians, yet I believe it still to be one the noblest Parts of Christian Worship. The Su jest of it is the Destrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar Glory of the Divine Natur that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly t vealed unto Men, and is so necessary to tru Christianity. The Action is Praise, which the mist compleat and exalted Part of heaven ly Worship. I have cast the Song into a Varie of Forms, and have fitted it by a plain Versio or a larger Paraphrase, to be sung either alon or at the Conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hosannas, or Ascriptions Salvation to Christ, in the same manner, an for the same end. xe threids the vior.
